

Contents

1. Issues Concerning the Indian Bond Markets	1
1.1 Overview of the Asian Financial Markets	1
1.2 The Financial Markets of India and its Relationship to Infrastructure-related Funds	2
1.3 Issues Concerning the Indian Bond Markets.....	3
2. Japan's Approaches to the Indian Bond Markets	9
2.1 History of Bond Issuances in Foreign Currencies by Indian Financial Institutions and Corporations.....	9
2.2 Prospects of Specific Products	12
2.3 Proposal Issuance of Samurai Bonds (Export-Import Bank of India).....	13
2.4 Proposal Bond Issuance and on-lending Conducted by International Organizations.....	13
2.5 Proposal Credit-Enhancement of Bonds Denominated in Indian Rupee (INR)	17
2.6 Proposal Credit-Enhanced Bonds Denominated in Foreign Currencies	20
2.7 Proposal for Issuance of Indian Credit-Enhanced Bonds.....	24
2.8 Summary	26
3. Financing and Bond Market Utilization for Infrastructure Development	27
3.1 India's Need for Funds for Infrastructure.....	27
3.2 Providing Funds for Infrastructure Projects in India.....	27
3.3 Specific Product Proposals.....	31
3.3.1 Utilizing the Bond Markets as a Method for Funding through IIFC (loans and bonds)	31
3.3.2 Utilizing the Bond Markets through Securitization (ABS) of Existing Projects.....	35
3.3.3 Utilizing the Bond Markets to Repay Existing Project Financing by Issuing Corporate Bonds..	38
4. Methods for Japan's Cooperation	39
4.1 Private Banks: Long-Term Lending for IIFC.....	40
4.2 Guarantees from JBIC and NEXI	40
4.3 Securities Companies Functioning as Intermediaries	40
4.4 Conclusion	41
APPENDIX	42